John 17 Discussion Questions

In the first part of the prayer Jesus describes His relationship with the Father and with His disciples.

What do you think He means when He says “Father glorify your Son so He can give glory back to you?” How does this connect to His authority?

The point of all of this is one thing: Eternal Life.

How does Jesus give eternal life? What is the opposite of eternal life?

What does He say is the way to have eternal life? Is there another way? If we believe the words of Jesus then the answer is no... then why not?

John writes to us about “the world” in multiple passages, what is he and Jesus specifically talking about?

Jesus prays for unity for those who of us believe through their message.

What is the ultimate purpose of visible Christian unity?

Why is this so hard for us to fulfill?

What is “the glory” that is visible in our unity?

He says the Father's love for Jesus will be “in them” and He will be in them.

Is this a clue to finding this kind of unity, how so?
